BACHELOR'S IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

TOWARDS A PROMISING FUTURE...

DEAN'S MESSAGE

The Faculty of Economics is devoted to offering a modern learning experience that contributes to the advancement of our community, country and region. Our long term plan for the faculty foresees blended learning that gives more support and elasticity to the learning process. We emphasize on the significance of research and extracurricular activities in the enhancement of students' experience, academics' development, and community service. Offering a robust academic program is our first step on our way to be the most modern Business Administration program in the region, recognized for its excellence in education, research and community service.

I seize this opportunity to invite students and parents to have a closer look at our programs, resources and facilities all aimed at ensuring academic and professional excellence.

Dr. Sayed Abdul Moiz
Dean, Faculty of Economics
